If our friendship depends on things like
space and time,
we've destroyed our own brotherhood!
But overcome space, and all we have left is Here.
Overcome time and all we have left is Now.
And in the middle of here and now don't you think that we might see each other once
or twice

As I look back on my life, one of the most constant and powerful things I have experienced within myself is the desire to be more than I am at the moment—
an unwillingness to let myself remain where I am—
a desire to do more,
learn more,
express more—a desire to grow, improve,
accomplish, expand.
I used to interpret this inner push as meaning that there was some one thing out there I wanted to do or be or have.
And I have spent too much of my life trying to find it.
But now I know that this energy within me is seeking more than the mate or the profession or
the religion,
more even than pleasure or power or meaning.
It is seeking out more of me;
or better,
it is,
thank God,
FLUSHING OUT
more of me.

Five smiling, stardancing madman Interdependent
 Chase runaway miracles through the night caustic,
 rustic,
 moonstruck
 mystics
 Coffee-on, milk-gone gypsy campfire Kings, Lords, free-winds,
 Singing songs of triumphs won Lutes in hand,
 Packs on backs,
 another daytime done.

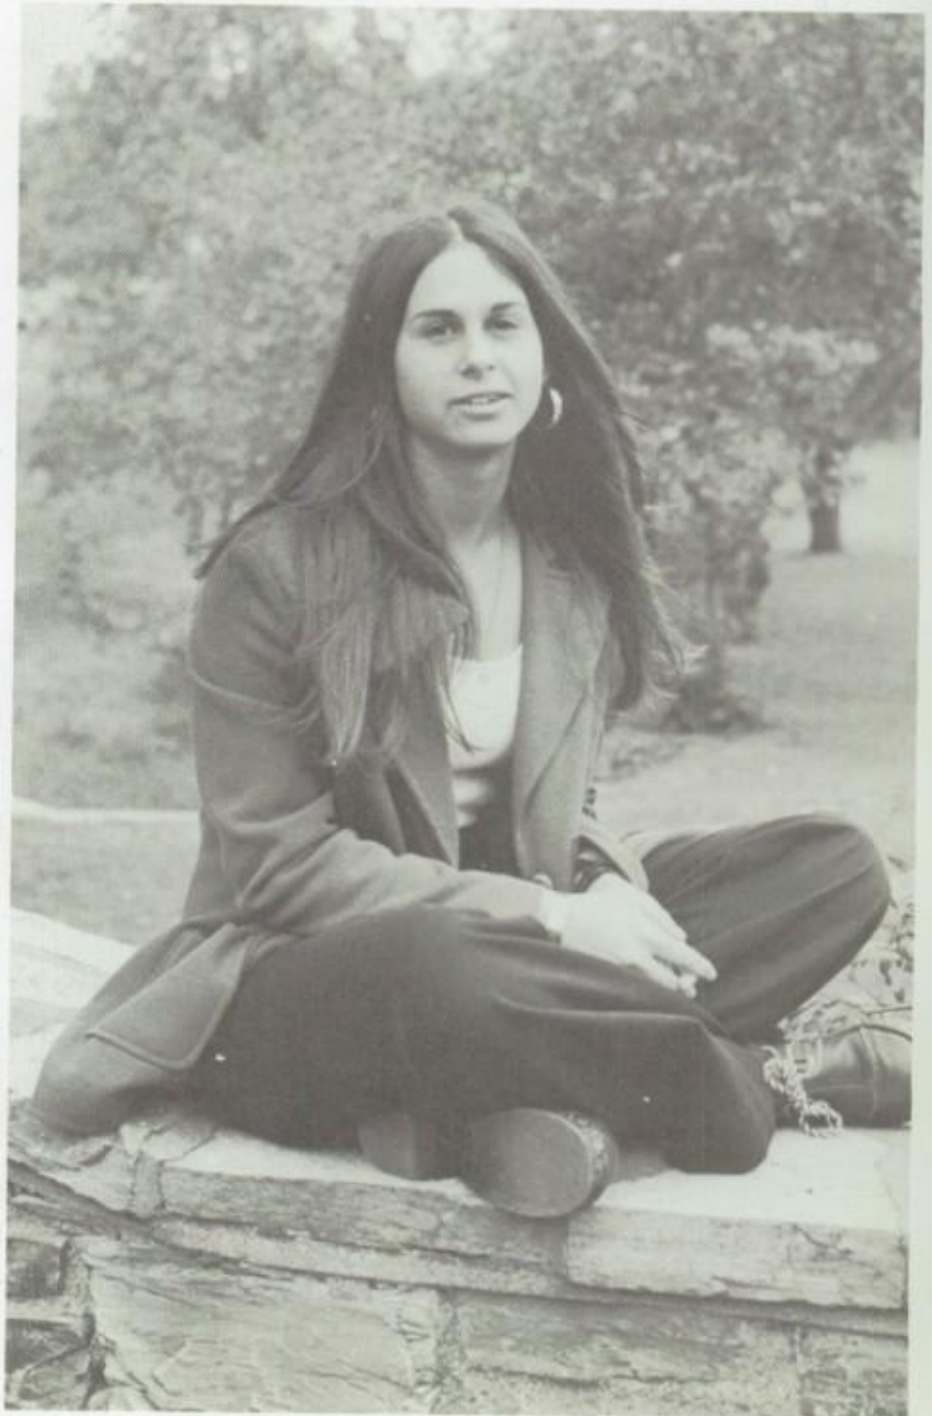

The caravan dissolves in the dark
And five bandanad,
ring-fingered,
fire-eyed men
Find themselves traking each other's footprints
Miles apart on the path of glory
